

FINCA CARAMBUCO

1.- HOME

Carambuco is a very special Andalusian farm for its tropical garden and for what is cultivated, mainly avocado trees. Its owners have kept it for generations and nowadays it has become an oasis in the Costa del Sol.

The garden is in hispano-arabic style, with its fountain, and watering system and there are some very unique trees for their rarity, fabulous size or for their antiquity. Apart from its beauty, this farm is known for the history of its inhabitants. It belongs to the family of the famous Spanish writer Pío Baroja. In this estate many well-known literary people and film producers have spent many happy times, like Gerald Brenan or Giuseppe de Santis, and is mentioned in literary works like Los Baroja, Malaga Burning, El gachupín or Historias de la vieja querida.

2.- INTERIORS

There are several venues where you can organize all sorts of family or business events, during the day or at night because it is all illuminated. There is:

A Garden, ideal to start your party, relax, stroll, take appetizers and enjoy its beauty.

A Multifunctional Garden among gigantic american nut trees with its beautiful shade. It has 614 square meters where you can fit approximately 40 round tables for 10 people each.

It can be used for lunch, dinner, parties, meetings, conferences, outdoor exhibitions, etc.

Patio

It is the typical patio of an Andalusian farm. It has approximately 1.000 square meters.

The central part is 252 square meters and is usually the dancing pista where some of the most famous parties have taken place.

3.- Settingd for civil weddings

This estate is the ideal place to hold civil weddings and continue celebrating the party without moving elsewhere.

There are are least two beautiful settings for any sort of ceremony: the pergola and the pool.

4.- COVERED VENUES

The Solita Hall and its anexes

It has this name in homage to Solita Gómez Raggio, a very deared person in Málaga. It is a covered not closed venue decorated in the style of the old Andalusian country farms. It has a magnificent grill.

It has about 300 square meters with three conected porches.

4.- INDOOR VENUES

Julio Caro Baroja Room

It is an old stable, transformed into a magnificent room of noble proportions (9,40 x 18,50m) and very high roof, two central pillars and ten windows. It measures 174square meters perfecto for conferences and exhibitions.

Ermita La Enamorada

It is a covered venue for emergencies.

5.- Condiciones y useful documents

Prices and Budget must be asked for.

Booking is guaranteed, with a 1.000€ payment. The rest must be payed before the event takes place.

6.- Contact us

Para contactar con nosotros

Finca Carambuco, c/ Julio Caro Baroja, s. n., Churriana 29140 (Málaga)

T. +34 629 881 290 / +34 629 473 811 / +34 630 022 394

elcarambuco@telefonica.net

Visita previa cita